ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Supporting Documentation:

Please make sure to upload your academic transcripts, CV and the form below to your online application by the application closing date. Applicants are not required to submit academic transcripts for studies undertaken at UQ.

APS Assessment of Overseas Qualifications (not applicable for Master of Business Psychology program):

All students who do not possess an APAC-accredited Honours level degree from an Australian University (or equivalent) must have their undergraduate qualifications assessed by the Australian Psychological Society. Further information is available from the APS website: www.psychology.org.au

Referee Reports for Domestic Applicants: The Australian Psychology Post-Graduate Program Reference Request System allows you to apply for a reference from an academic and/or professional referees and for those references to be shared with your nominated institution. For further information on this system, please visit the Australian Psychology Post-Graduate Program Reference Request System and follow the three simple steps, which includes creating an active subscription for $25.

Referee Reports for Master of Business Psychology program & International Applicants: Once your online application has been submitted a referee report request will be forwarded automatically (via email) to your nominated referees. Please notify your referees and advise them of the application closing date before submitting your online application.

Application for more than one program:

If you are applying for more than one program (eg. Clinical and Organisational or Clinical and Counselling) you will need to tailor the additional application form to reflect why you would like to undertake each specific program and upload the form to your online application. Please note that if you apply for three program preferences your 3rd preference may not be considered.

Interviews:

Shortlisted applicants are interviewed in November for Semester 1, 2021 entry. The School of Psychology will contact shortlisted candidates directly to arrange interview activities – please note that if a domestic applicant is travelling overseas at the time that the interview is scheduled, it is expected that they will arrange access to video-conferencing/Zoom facilities via a university or commercial provider in order to take part in the interview.

NB: Your application will not be considered if you are unable to attend an interview or arrange for video-conferencing/Zoom facilities.

Selection:

Applications are assessed using a two-stage process. First applicants are shortlisted for interview based on academic achievement, relevant work experience and referee reports. Applicants selected for interview are then assessed by a small team of teaching staff and supervisors within each program. Final selection is based on the application as a whole including academic achievement, relevant work experience, referees' reports and the interview activities.

Offers:

Offers are made in November/December for Semester 1, 2021 entry. Deferred enrolments are not permitted.

Preplacement Requirements:

Before commencing placements, all students will need to meet specific pre-placement requirements, including legislative, security and health and safety requirements – specific program requirements will be included in each offer letter and could include requirements such as immunisations, blue card, evidence of criminal history and registration evidence.

Psychology Board Registration (not applicable to Master of Business Psychology program):

You must have provisional or general registration with the Psychology Board of Australia to commence an APAC accredited program. You may also wish to familiarize yourself with the Registration Standard on the Psychology Board website: English Language Skills (this includes all Australian applicants).

Further information can be found at: www.ahpra.gov.au/registration/registration-standards/english-language-skills.aspx
